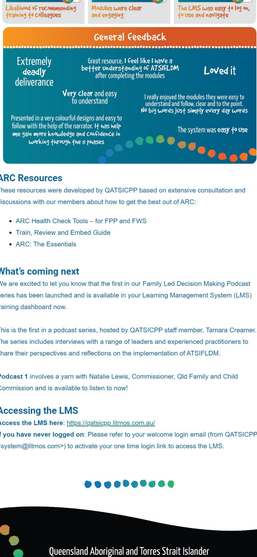
Over 150 FPP and FWS practitioners complete the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Family Led Decision Making online course in our new LMS

Update

- Launch of LMS system to Family Participation Program and Family Wellbeing Services practitioners from January – March 2022.
- As at the end of July – 400+ FPP and FWS practitioners from across the state have been provided with access.
- ATSIFLDM modules have been released on the system and successfully completed by over 150 community controlled sector practitioners.



ARC Resources

These resources were developed by QATSICPP based on extensive consultation and discussions with our members about how to get the best out of ARC:

- ARC Health Check Tools – for FPP and FWS
- Train, Review and Embed Guide
- ARC: The Essentials

What's coming next

We are excited to let you know that the first in our Family Led Decision Making Podcast series has been launched and is available in your Learning Management System (LMS) training dashboard now.

This is the first in a podcast series, hosted by QATSICPP staff member, Tamara Creamer. The series includes interviews with a range of leaders and experienced practitioners to share their perspectives and reflections on the implementation of ATSIFLDM.

Podcast 1 involves a yarn with Natalie Lewis, Commissioner, Qld Family and Child Commission and is available to listen to now!

Launch of Podcast series about Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Family Led Decision Making on LMS

100% of listeners who completed the survey agreed or strongly agreed that the content was informative and interesting to listen to.

Update

- LMS launch is still progressing well with now over 200 Sector practitioners having completed the 5 ATSIFLDM modules.
- QATSICPP's first podcast series has also been launched on the LMS with 5 thought leaders and practitioners sharing their reflections and knowledge with host, Tamara Creamer.
- All 5 podcasts are available now, with deeper insights included in bonus episodes.
- Reflection sheets accompany each episode to support the use of the podcasts as developmental and teaching tools.

What's coming next

We are in the process of onboarding Sector Foster and Kinship Care Services and Youth Services. So stay turned if you work in those areas.

The QATSICPP Team are working on webinars that will be delivered live and then saved into LMS as a resource that is available ongoing.
